NATURE OF WORK

This is responsible municipal police work addressing problems, protecting life and property, and enhancing the quality of life in the community.

Work involves responsibility for the protection of life and property, prevention of crime, apprehension of criminals, and the fair and impartial enforcement of laws and ordinances in the designated area on an assigned shift. An employee of this class may be assigned to uniformed patrol, traffic enforcement, criminal investigation, or other specialized departmental activity. Work involves an element of personal danger, and officers must be able to act without direct supervision and to exercise independent judgment in meeting both routine and complex emergency situations. Work assignments and instructions are received in general terms from a supervising officer who reviews work through reports, observations, and conferences to ensure conformance to departmental and professional standards.

EXAMPLES OF ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS

Patrols a designated area of the Village; checks doors and windows and examines premises of unoccupied buildings or residences in order to detect any suspicious conditions; observes violations of laws and ordinances and responds to incidents involving traffic crashes, misdemeanors, felonies, and miscellaneous citizen service requests; makes police presence known in a manner that contributes toward deterrence of crime; gives information and provides assistance to motorists and the public.

Conducts preliminary investigations at the scenes of crimes, traffic crashes and other incidents; administers emergency medical aid to persons; gathers and preserves evidence; locates and questions witnesses; writes citations and makes arrests as required by circumstances; testifies as a witness in court.

Processes prisoners upon admission; takes fingerprints, photographs, and receipts their personal property; may transport prisoners.

May be assigned to traffic education and enforcement; enforces traffic and motor vehicle regulations through visual observation and radar patrol, issues written warnings or citations to offenders; investigates and prepares reports of traffic crashes involving property damage, injuries and fatalities; maintains traffic-related statistics.

May be assigned to criminal/youth investigation; investigates crimes and criminal activities involving adults and/or juveniles; conducts crime scene investigations; obtains statements of victims, witnesses, and suspects; investigates assigned cases until cleared or declared inactive; maintains records of investigations and assists in the preparation of cases for court and court diversion programs; testifies in court as necessary.

May be assigned to crime prevention/community relations duties; conducts security surveys; coordinates crime opportunity prevention plans; presents public information programs; analyzes community concerns.

May be assigned to full time local school duties; acts as a teaching resource for school community; assists with school security; conducts classes; investigates youth related problems; maintains appropriate records.

May be assigned to other specialized duties as required.

Performs related work as required.

PHYSICAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL WORKING CONDITIONS

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this position. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

Duties are primarily performed on patrol in an assigned geographical area where the employee is exposed to varying and extreme weather conditions. When responding to emergencies, employee risks physical hazard from violent, aggressive, and hostile people, a variety of weapons, noise, chemicals, bodily secretions, sharp objects, traffic, drugs and drug paraphernalia and crime scenes. Physical exertion is required to climb stairs, go over walls, run, move heavy objects, crawl through tight spaces, kneel in confined areas and sit for long period of time during surveillance. Physical effort is required to lift materials, equipment and persons exceeding 50 lbs., and subdue combative persons. May experience disruption in sleep patterns as a result of shift work.

REQUIREMENTS OF WORK

Graduation from high school or equivalent and any combination of training and experience which provides the following knowledge, ability, and skills:

- Knowledge of modern police practices and methods.
- Knowledge of departmental procedures, rules and regulations.
- Knowledge of applicable federal, state and local laws and ordinances, including laws of arrest.
- Knowledge of the street layout and geography of the Village.
- Ability to deal firmly and courteously with the public.
- Ability to communicate effectively, orally and in writing.
- Ability to maintain required records and to prepare reports.
- Ability to analyze situations quickly and objectively and to determine proper course of action.
- Ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with others.
- Ability to meet such physical requirements as may be established by competent authority.
